RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION of the
CASCADEL MUTUAL WATER CO.
a California nonprofit mutual benefit corporation
(Entity No. 449947)

The undersigned certify that:

1. They are the duly elected president and secretary of Cascadel Mutual Water Co., a California nonprofit mutual benefit corporation, with California Entity Number 449947.

2. The Articles of Incorporation of this corporation are amended and restated to read in their entirety as follows:

FIRST: The name of the corporation is CASCADEL MUTUAL WATER CO.

SECOND: The corporation is authorized to issue memberships that are voting memberships and appurtenant to the underlying land in the corporation's service area for which each membership is issued, as specified more fully in the corporation's Bylaws.

Deleted: one class of THIRD: This corporation is a nonprofit mutual benefit corporation organized under the Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law. The purpose of this corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity, other than credit union business, for which a corporation may be organized under such law.

FOURTH: The service area of the corporation shall be the area of land described as Tract No. 119 and Tract No. 24 in the recorded books and records of Madera County, State of California, and as more particularly described in the legal description attached as Exhibit A.

FIFTH: In addition to any further powers set forth in the corporation's Bylaws, the corporation shall have the following purposes, powers, and authority:

(a) To operate as a mutual water company within the meaning of Corporations Code section 14301 and to distribute, supply, or deliver water for domestic and irrigation purposes at cost to the owners of its memberships in accordance with Corporations Code section 14300.

(b) To maintain and operate a water system, including all necessary and convenient watersheds, springs, wells, water courses, conduits, pipes and pipe lines, pumps and pumping machinery and equipment, tanks and tank sites, and all other means of storing, conserving, and distributing water, for the purpose of supplying its members with water, and to maintain and operate the same, for and upon the land located in the corporation's service area within Madera County, State of California, and as otherwise set forth in the corporation's Bylaws or as permitted under California law.

(c) To buy, lease, or otherwise acquire real property and/or personal property, and any rights therein, necessary and convenient for the corporation's stated purposes, and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same.

(d) To own, operate, and maintain facilities, improvements, and real property held for the common use and benefit of its members, including roads, easements, and areas reasonably necessary or convenient for the delivery of water to its members or the protection of the corporation's water facilities or its members' properties.

(e) To own, operate, maintain, and improve real property, vacant land, and community-use and recreational areas, improvements, and facilities serving the members and their households.

(f) To adopt and enforce reasonable rules and regulations governing member and occupant activities on served properties within the corporation's service area to the extent those activities materially affect the corporation's ability to furnish water service safely, efficiently, and equitably; provided that such activities are incidental and subordinate to the corporation's primary water-supply purpose, and they relate to: occupancy levels, transient or short-term rental use, or similar activities that substantially increase or fluctuate water demand, wastewater discharge, or other usage impacting the corporation's water system; access to meters, pipelines, or easements necessary for maintenance, reading, or emergency service; and protection of water quality, conservation, and system capacity consistent with applicable state and local law. Any rule or regulation adopted under this Article shall be reasonable, nondiscriminatory, and directly related to the protection or management of the corporation's water system and shall be adopted in accordance with procedures set forth in the corporation's Bylaws.

(g) Assume obligations, enter into contracts, including contracts of guarantee or suretyship, incur liabilities, borrow or lend money or otherwise use its credit, and secure any of its obligations, contracts, or liabilities by mortgage, pledge, or other encumbrance of all or any part of its property and income by means of mortgage, deed of trust, or other lawful means.

(h) Participate with others in any partnership, joint venture, or other association, transaction, or arrangement of any kind whether or not such participation involves sharing or delegation of control with or to others.

(i) To fix and collect rates and charges from its members for the operation and maintenance of the corporation's water system facilities and real property that the corporation is responsible for maintaining, or any of the services offered or furnished by this corporation, and to maintain adequate level of reserves for necessary maintenance, repair, and replacement of these same items, as specified more fully in the Bylaws.

(j) To levy upon and collect assessments from its members from time to time for the purpose of raising funds to meet all capital expenditures in connection with any of the corporation's services or extensions thereof, and any deficiency in the operating or maintenance cost of providing any such services, including, but not limited to, levying and collecting assessments from its members to pay for the costs of operating, maintaining, repairing, replacing, and improving real property, vacant land, and community-use and recreational areas, facilities, and improvements serving the members, and any other expenditures incurred or to be incurred in carrying out the purposes of this corporation, and to take all lawful means for the enforcement of such collections. Each assessment shall be a lien on the memberships and, to the extent allowed by law, upon the member's real property to which that member's membership is appurtenant, assessed from the time of its adoption until paid.

(k) To the extent allowed by law and as specified more fully in the Bylaws, to record notice of any lien against the real property of a member to collect any delinquent rate, charge, or assessment owed to the corporation by that member, and to withhold the transfer of any membership while subject to the lien.

(l) To accept grant funding from any public agency or entity or any private corporation or entity to be used in the operations and/or capital facilities of the corporation.

(m) To enter into any obligations or contracts or to do any acts incidental to the transaction of its business or expedient for the attainment of the purposes of the corporation.

(n) To issue, purchase, redeem, receive, take or otherwise acquire, own, sell, lend, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of, pledge, use, and otherwise deal in and with its own memberships, bonds, debentures, notes, and debt securities.

(o) And, subject to any limitations set forth in the Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law, to exercise all of the powers granted to a nonprofit mutual benefit corporation and the powers necessarily incident thereto.

(p) And to do and perform any and all other acts which may be, either necessary for, or proper or incidental to, the exercise of any of the foregoing powers; provided, however, that the purposes for which this corporation is formed and the powers of these Articles herein granted shall in no way ever be construed, exercised, or permitted to function as a public utility, nor shall any of the water owned by the corporation, or any water that may hereafter be developed from any water system owned by the corporation, be sold, furnished, or delivered to any person, firm, or corporation, other than the members of the CASCADEL MUTUAL WATER CO.,

their tenants, and contracting purchasers upon the lands described in the corporation's Bylaws, except as may otherwise be allowed under California law without having the corporation be deemed to be acting as a public utility.

SIXTH: That Madera County, State of California, is the county where the principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation is to be located.

SEVENTH: The liability of the directors of the corporation for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permissible under the Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law. The corporation is authorized to provide indemnification of agents, as authorized under Section 7237 of the Corporations Code.

EIGHTH: That the sole qualification for membership in this corporation shall be holding title to one of the parcels described in the corporation's Bylaws; provided, however, that such membership shall be transferred to the new title holder when the owner thereof is no longer the holder of the title to such parcel. The Class A memberships shall be tied to all water rights held by the corporation, including the riparian water rights owned by the corporation pursuant to that certain May 31, 1963 Grant of Riparian Water Right and Right of Way Agreement to Maintain and Use Existing Water Distributing System, based on the corporation's water supply conditions as described in the Bylaws. That each Class A member of this corporation shall have votes upon all matters that shall come before the members, in the proportion set forth in the corporation's Bylaws; provided that no Class A member shall be permitted to vote at any meeting while in default in the payment of any rates, charges, or assessments levied for any purpose by this corporation, subject to the member's rights and the process established in the Bylaws; and each member of this corporation shall have such an interest in all of the property of this corporation allocated to its class of membership interest, as specified in the Bylaws and as represented by the ratio of memberships to which such member is entitled to the total possible number of memberships that may be voted by all the members of the corporation. The corporation shall have power to admit new members who shall be entitled to vote and to membership in the property of the corporation with the existing members, in accordance with the general rule above set forth and as more fully detailed in the Bylaws.

3. The foregoing amended and restated Articles of Incorporation have been duly approved by the corporation's Board of Directors.

4. The foregoing amended and restated Articles of Incorporation have also been duly approved by a vote of the outstanding memberships of the corporation, as required by Corporations Code section 7812. The affirmative vote of a simple majority of the outstanding memberships entitled to vote is required to approve these Restated Articles of Incorporation, and these amended and restated Articles of Incorporation were approved by the required vote of members.
